Our team of Analysts and Negotiators have helped over 23,000 clients in the last 20 years lower their expenses.
Let us help you find out if you are overpaying for your essential business expenses.

When was the last time you spoke with your current vendors and had your costs reduced?

Are your services optimized for your business for today and in the future?

Do you have a good relationship with your vendors, or is dealing with them more of a chore than a joy?

Do you review your bills monthly and consistently negotiate with vendors. If your answer is yes, is it a part of your job that you enjoy?

If so, approximately how much are you spending per month in each category:

Telecom (All wired and wireless devices):

Merchant Services:

Waste (Anything you pay to have taken away from your business):

What does working with Schooley Mitchell look like

1. An independent audit of your expenses with no upfront financial relationship
2. Takes roughly 2-4 hours of time to gather data
3. We provide available options both with current vendors as well as others in the marketplace
4. YOU still have the final decision to stay or go
5. We monitor your bills for a period of 3 years to ensure consistent cost savings and no clerical errors
6. We only make money from helping you save money, so we CANNOT DECREASE YOUR BOTTOM LINE
